Healthy Breakfast Guide

There is no required breakfast

Some people feel better with a morning meal. Some do not. This guide does not assign a calorie target or a clock time. If a clinician gave you a meal schedule, use that.

Ideas you can repeat

Pick one you can make on a tired morning. Repeating a meal is allowed.

- Oats cooked with water or milk you tolerate, plus fruit
- Eggs with toast you already buy
- Plain yogurt and fruit
- Leftover beans with rice or a tortilla
- Last night’s dinner, reheated until it is hot

A note on sugar

Flavored yogurts, cereals, and breakfast drinks can carry added sugar. The Hidden Sugar Guide and the Nutrition label section show where to read that line.
